Standard Questions for Human Rights Commission Applicants

1. Tell us about yourself, how long you've lived in the Village and where else have you lived?

2. What attracted you to the Village?

3. What is your perception of Amberley Village? And when someone learns you are from Amberley Village, what is their perception of the Village?

Some other questions:

4. The Human Rights Commission in Amberley was created in 2018 to educate our residents. Do you have any areas you believe the HRC should focus? (or) Given your knowledge of Amberley, what do you see as priorities for the Human Rights Commission over the next few years?

5. Why do you want to be on the Human Rights Commission?

6. Is there an issue that you are really passionate about that causes you to want to be on the Human Rights Commission?

7. Do you perceive there are inequities within the Village as it relates to Human Rights?

8. Have you observed other community's Human Rights Commission actions and wished Amberley Village did something similar?

9. Any questions of us?
